Spy to the collector of Bellary

Note:

Please see the Board's refce in the y. The collector's letter on pp 1-2 y furnishes the facts of the case. The collector recommended in his letter R.C. no. 4757/40.A3. dated 24.4.41. the transfer of S. No. 176-2 of Arsanahal village to ayan and its assignment in favour of one Siddalingappa. But the Board refused its assignment observing that there was need to acquire the occupied portion of the course of vanka rather than to allow the unoccupied portions to be occupied - please see the note in pp 5-10 y and the Board's proceedings on p2 7y of (K). For the reasons stated in his letter dated 15.5.50 The collector of Iscuary has again requested that the orders passed by the Board in the matter may be rescinded permitting him to transfer S. nos. 176-2 and 176-3 of Arsanakal village from 'vaikka poramboke' to 'ayan' and to assign them to political sufferers. The Board recommends the collector's proposals. In the circumstances, the Govt may accept the Board's recommendation. Subject to orders a draft order is submitted overleaf for approval.
